London School of Theology is one of the largest Evangelical theological colleges in Europe. Thomas & Thomas were instructed to develop the student accommodation in the Laing building, including installation of en-suite shower and WC facilities, refurbishment, and modernisation of bedrooms over the summer holidays.

66 rooms were modernised over a six-week summer recess. Refurbishment continued into the summer term, with a calendar of conferences and guests being accommodated during the work.

Project Highlights

Consultancy

Contract Value: £950k